

Creative Firestarter

A 1/2 day workshop that will jumpstart your creative thinking. You will learn how creativity impacts your life; personally & professionally. Creativity will be defined, explored and experienced. This session will be filled with laughter, risk-taking and play.

If your "embers" of creativity are cold....get them fired back up. If you are smoldering, we'll provide the fuel for the flame. Our desire for you is an opportunity to express more joy and passion in your life!!!

Two Dates to Choose From:

Wednesday,
October 27, 2010
5pm until 8:30pm

Wednesday,
November 10, 2010
8:30am until Noon

Location: Artworks Upper Gallery

Program Cost: $49

How to Register: Call Lynne at 231.796.2668 or Visit www.lynnescheible.com

- Lynne Scheible is a Creativity and Planning Coach who has been teaching the principles of creativity for over 20 years. Her business focuses on bringing more joy, energy and focus to the workplace.
- Bea Griffith-Cooper is an instructional designer. She works at Ferris State University in the Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning. She is a resource to faculty who want creative design ideas to improve their teaching practice. Griffith-Cooper is an author of change leadership topics.